Experience. . .

ex·pe·ri·ence (ik-spêr′i-əns), n. [ME.; OFr.; L. experientia, trial, proof, experiment < experiens, ppr. of experiri, to try, put to test; ex-, out + base appearing in peritus, experienced < IE. base per-*, to attempt, venture; akin to Gr. peira, experience, attempt, and prob. to AS. frasian, to inquire, try], 1. an actual living through an event or events; personally undergoing or observing something or things in general as they occur. 2. anything observed or lived through: as, our trip was a pleasant experience. 3. all that has happened to one; everything that one has seen or done: as, it hasn't happened in my experience. 4. effect on one of anything or everything that has happened to him; individual reaction to events,

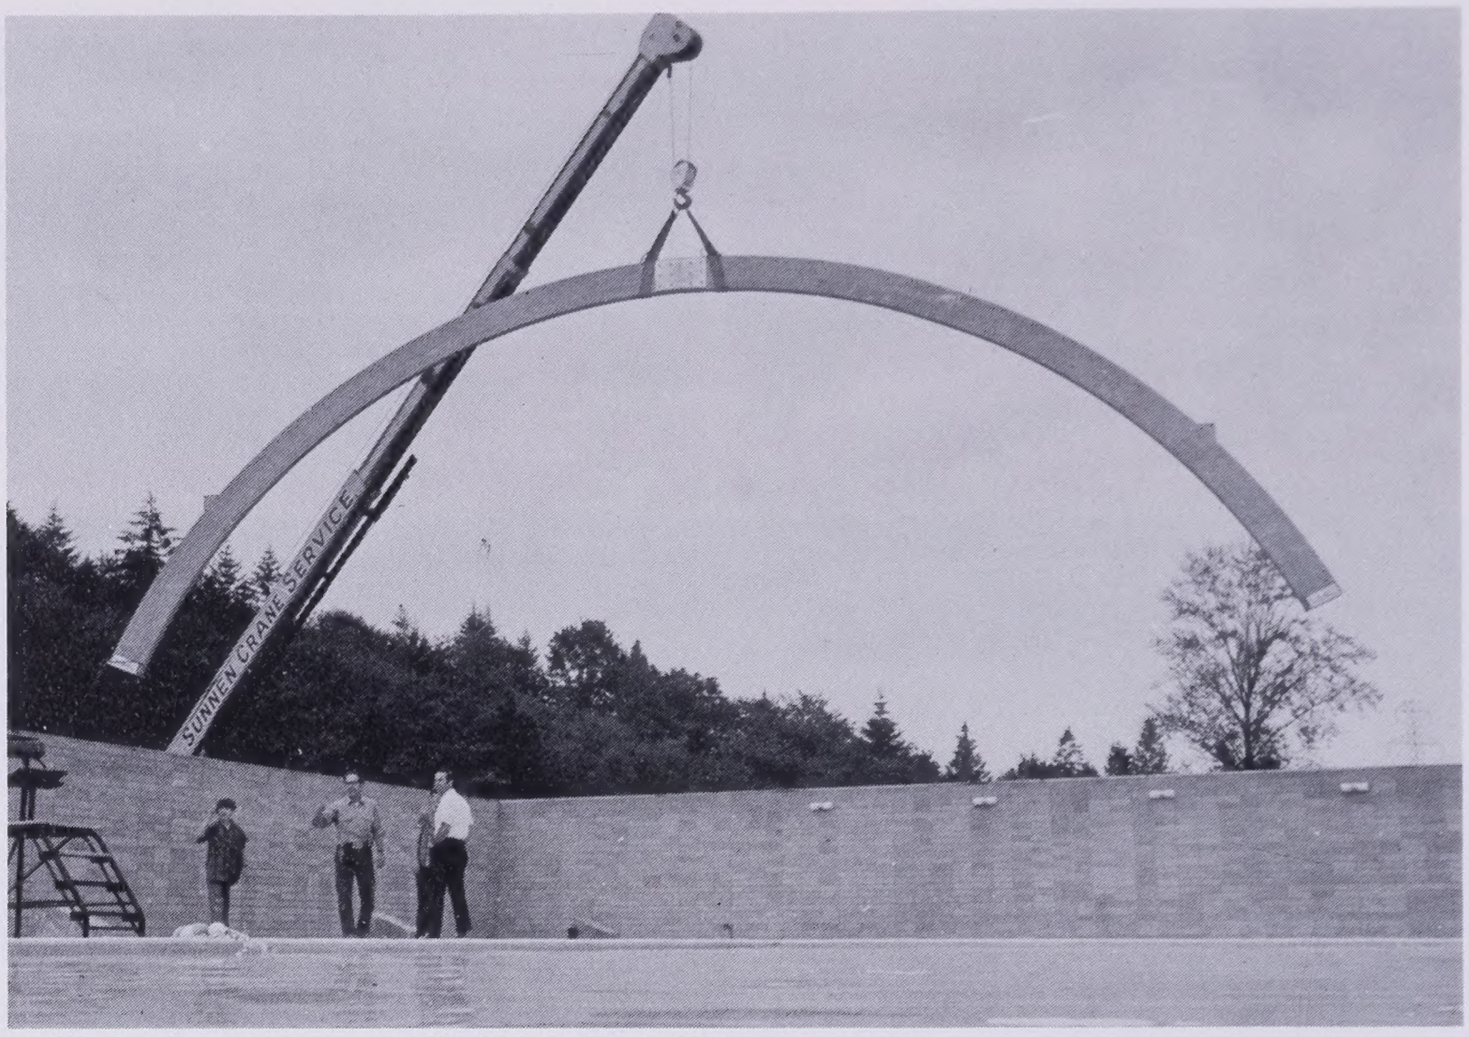

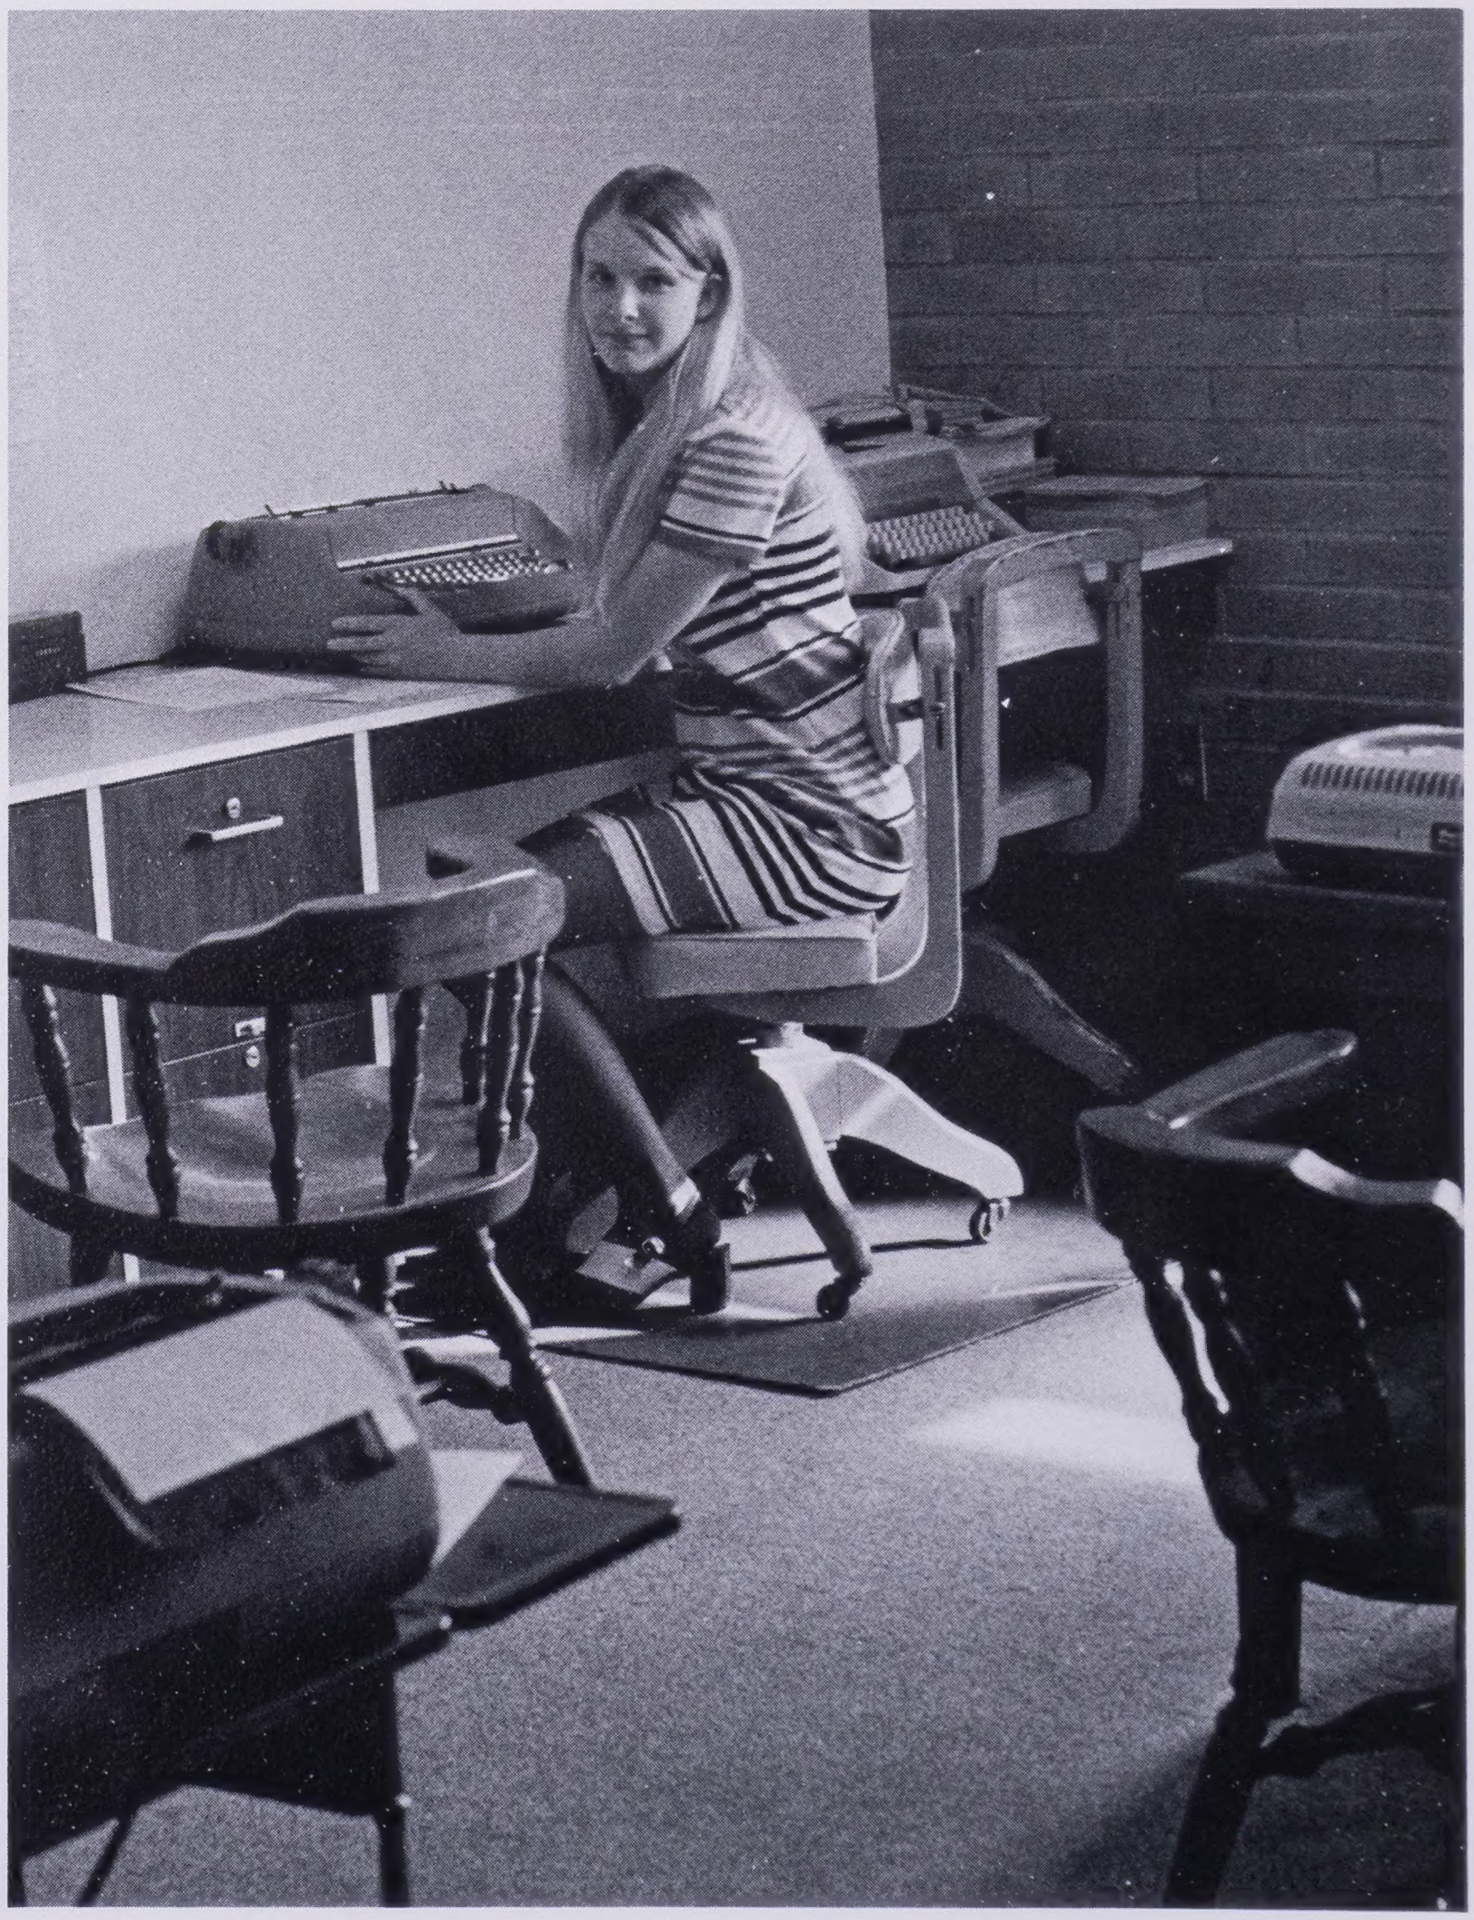

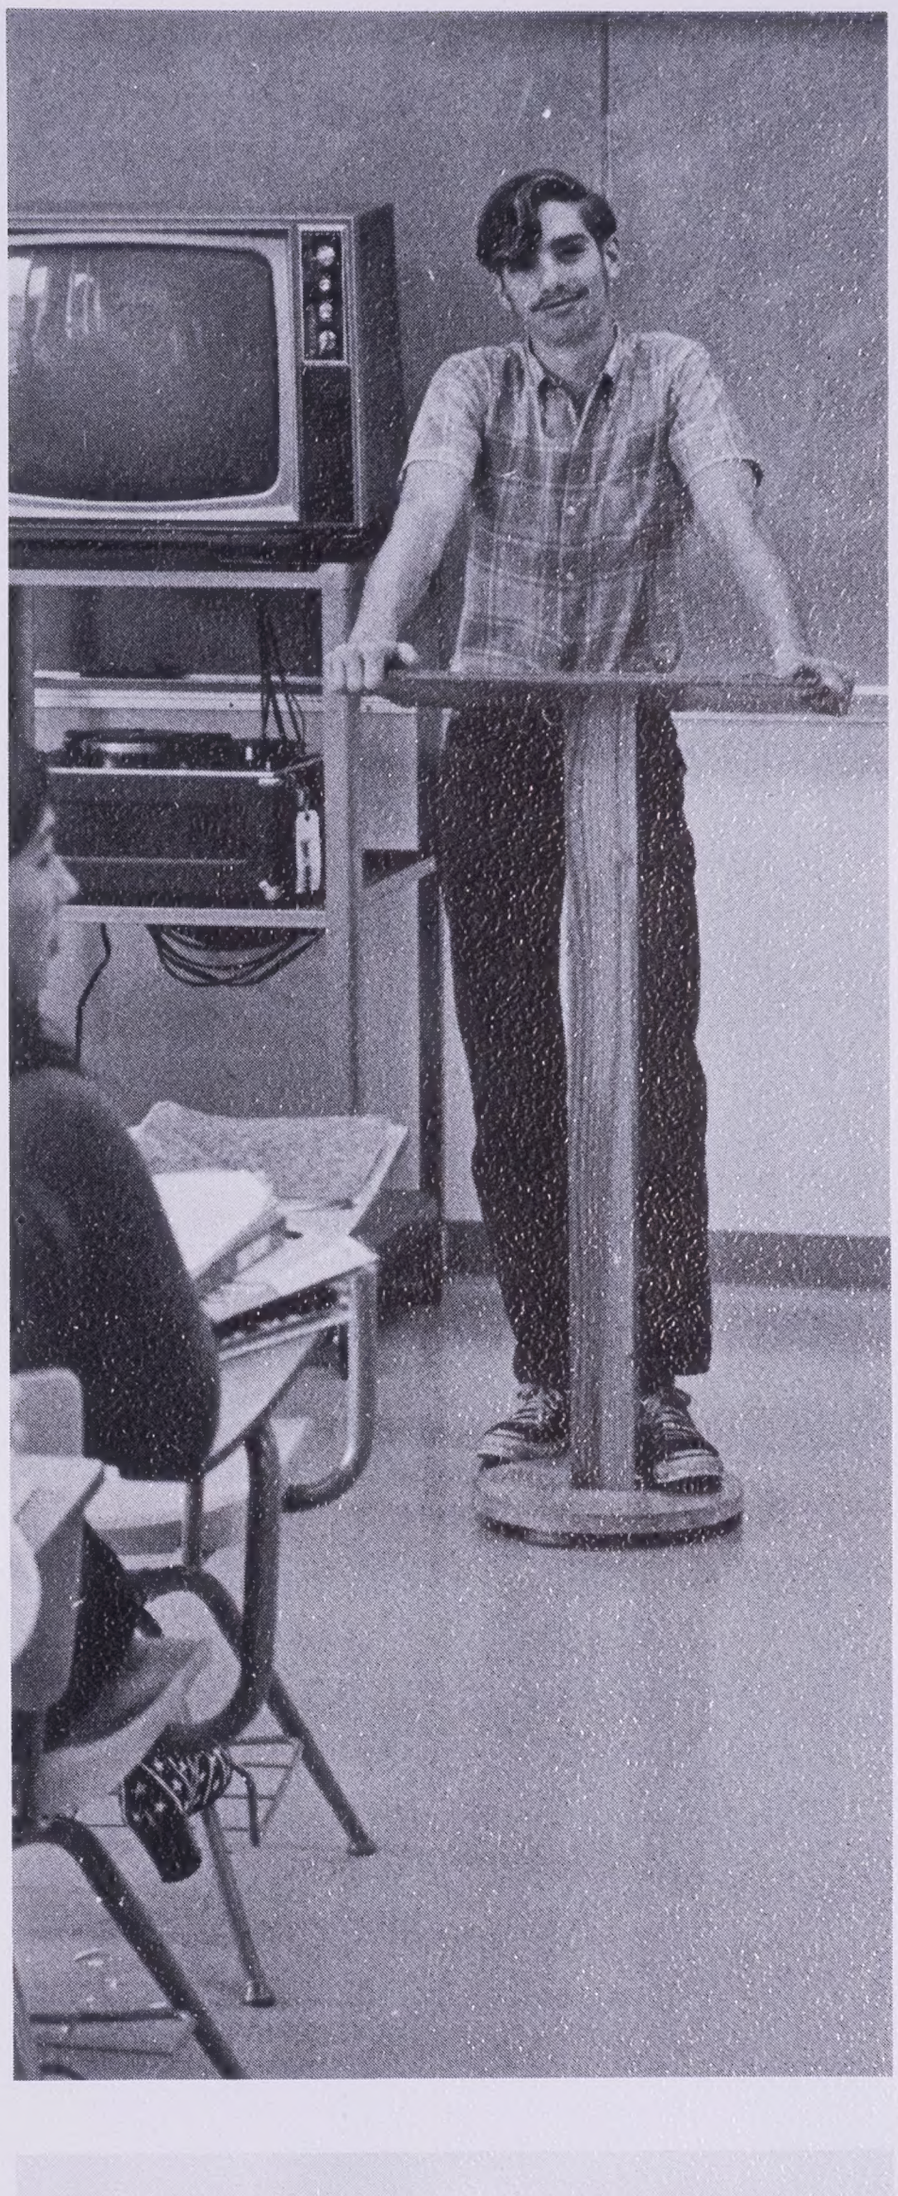

"The sun rises and the sun goes down; back it returns to its place and rises there again. The wind blows south, the wind blows north, round and round it goes and returns full circle. All streams run into the sea, yet the sea never overflows; back to the place from which the streams ran they return to run again."

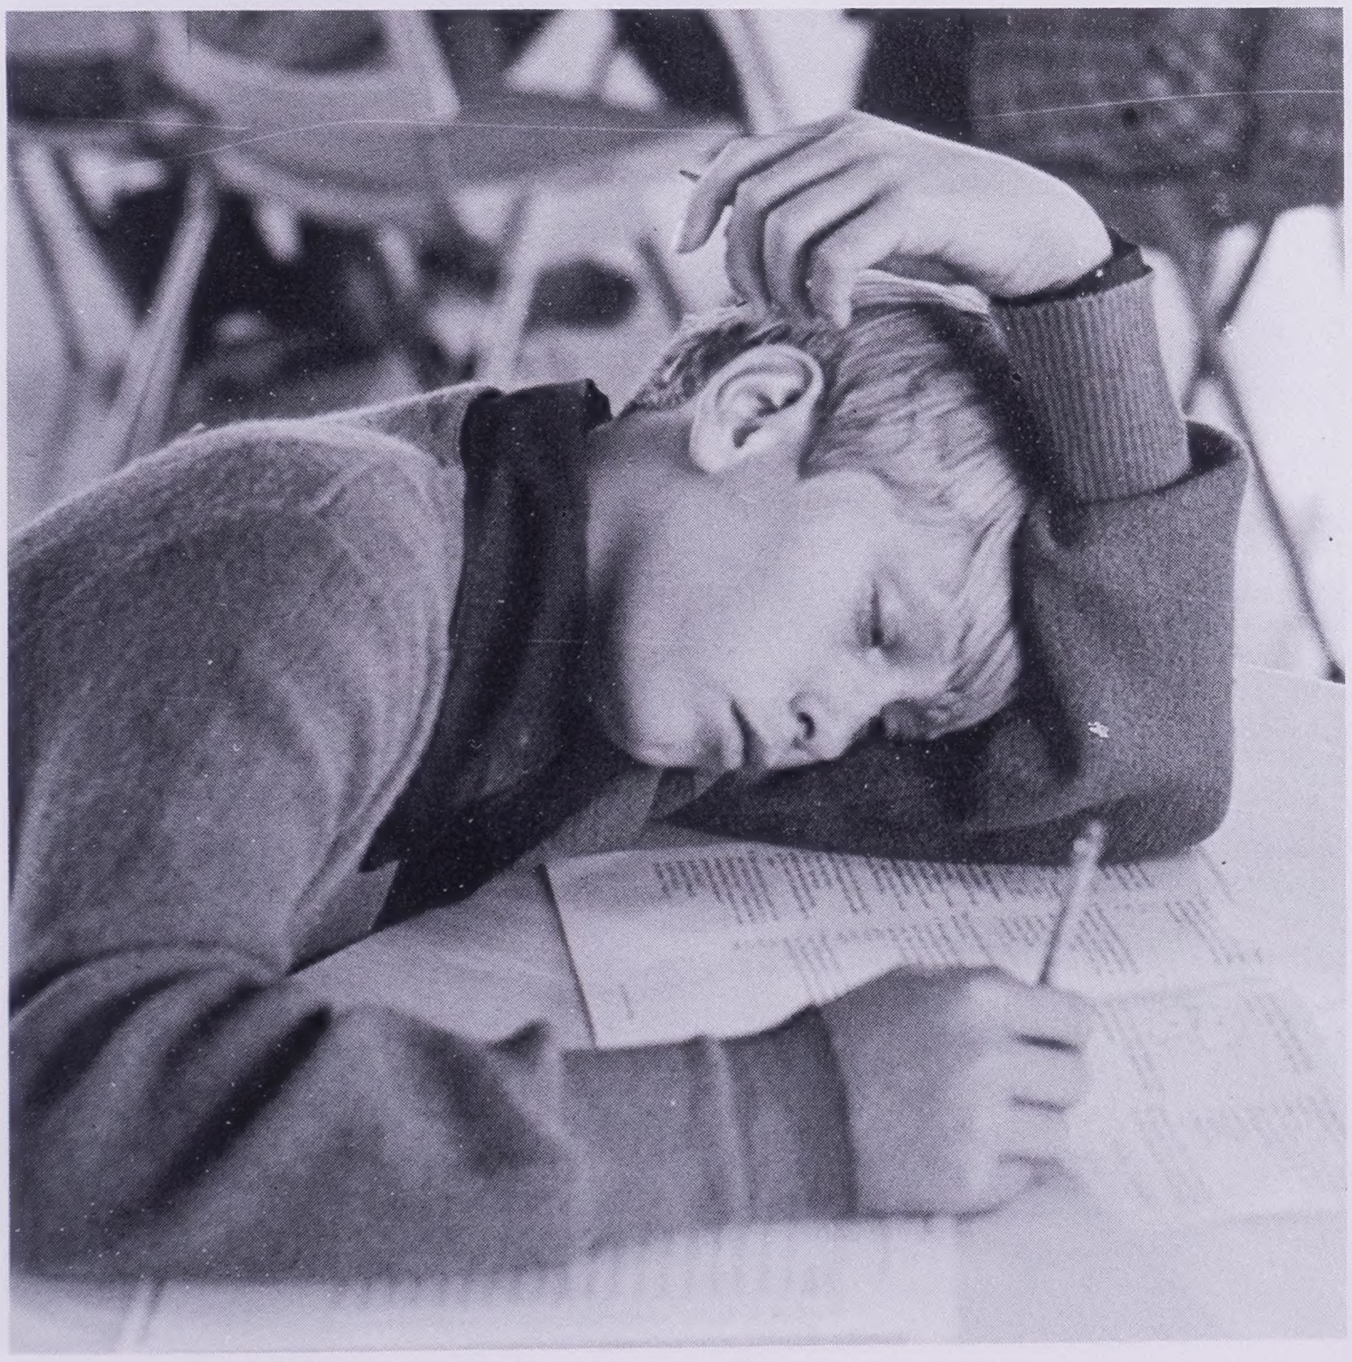

Ecclesiastes 1:5-7

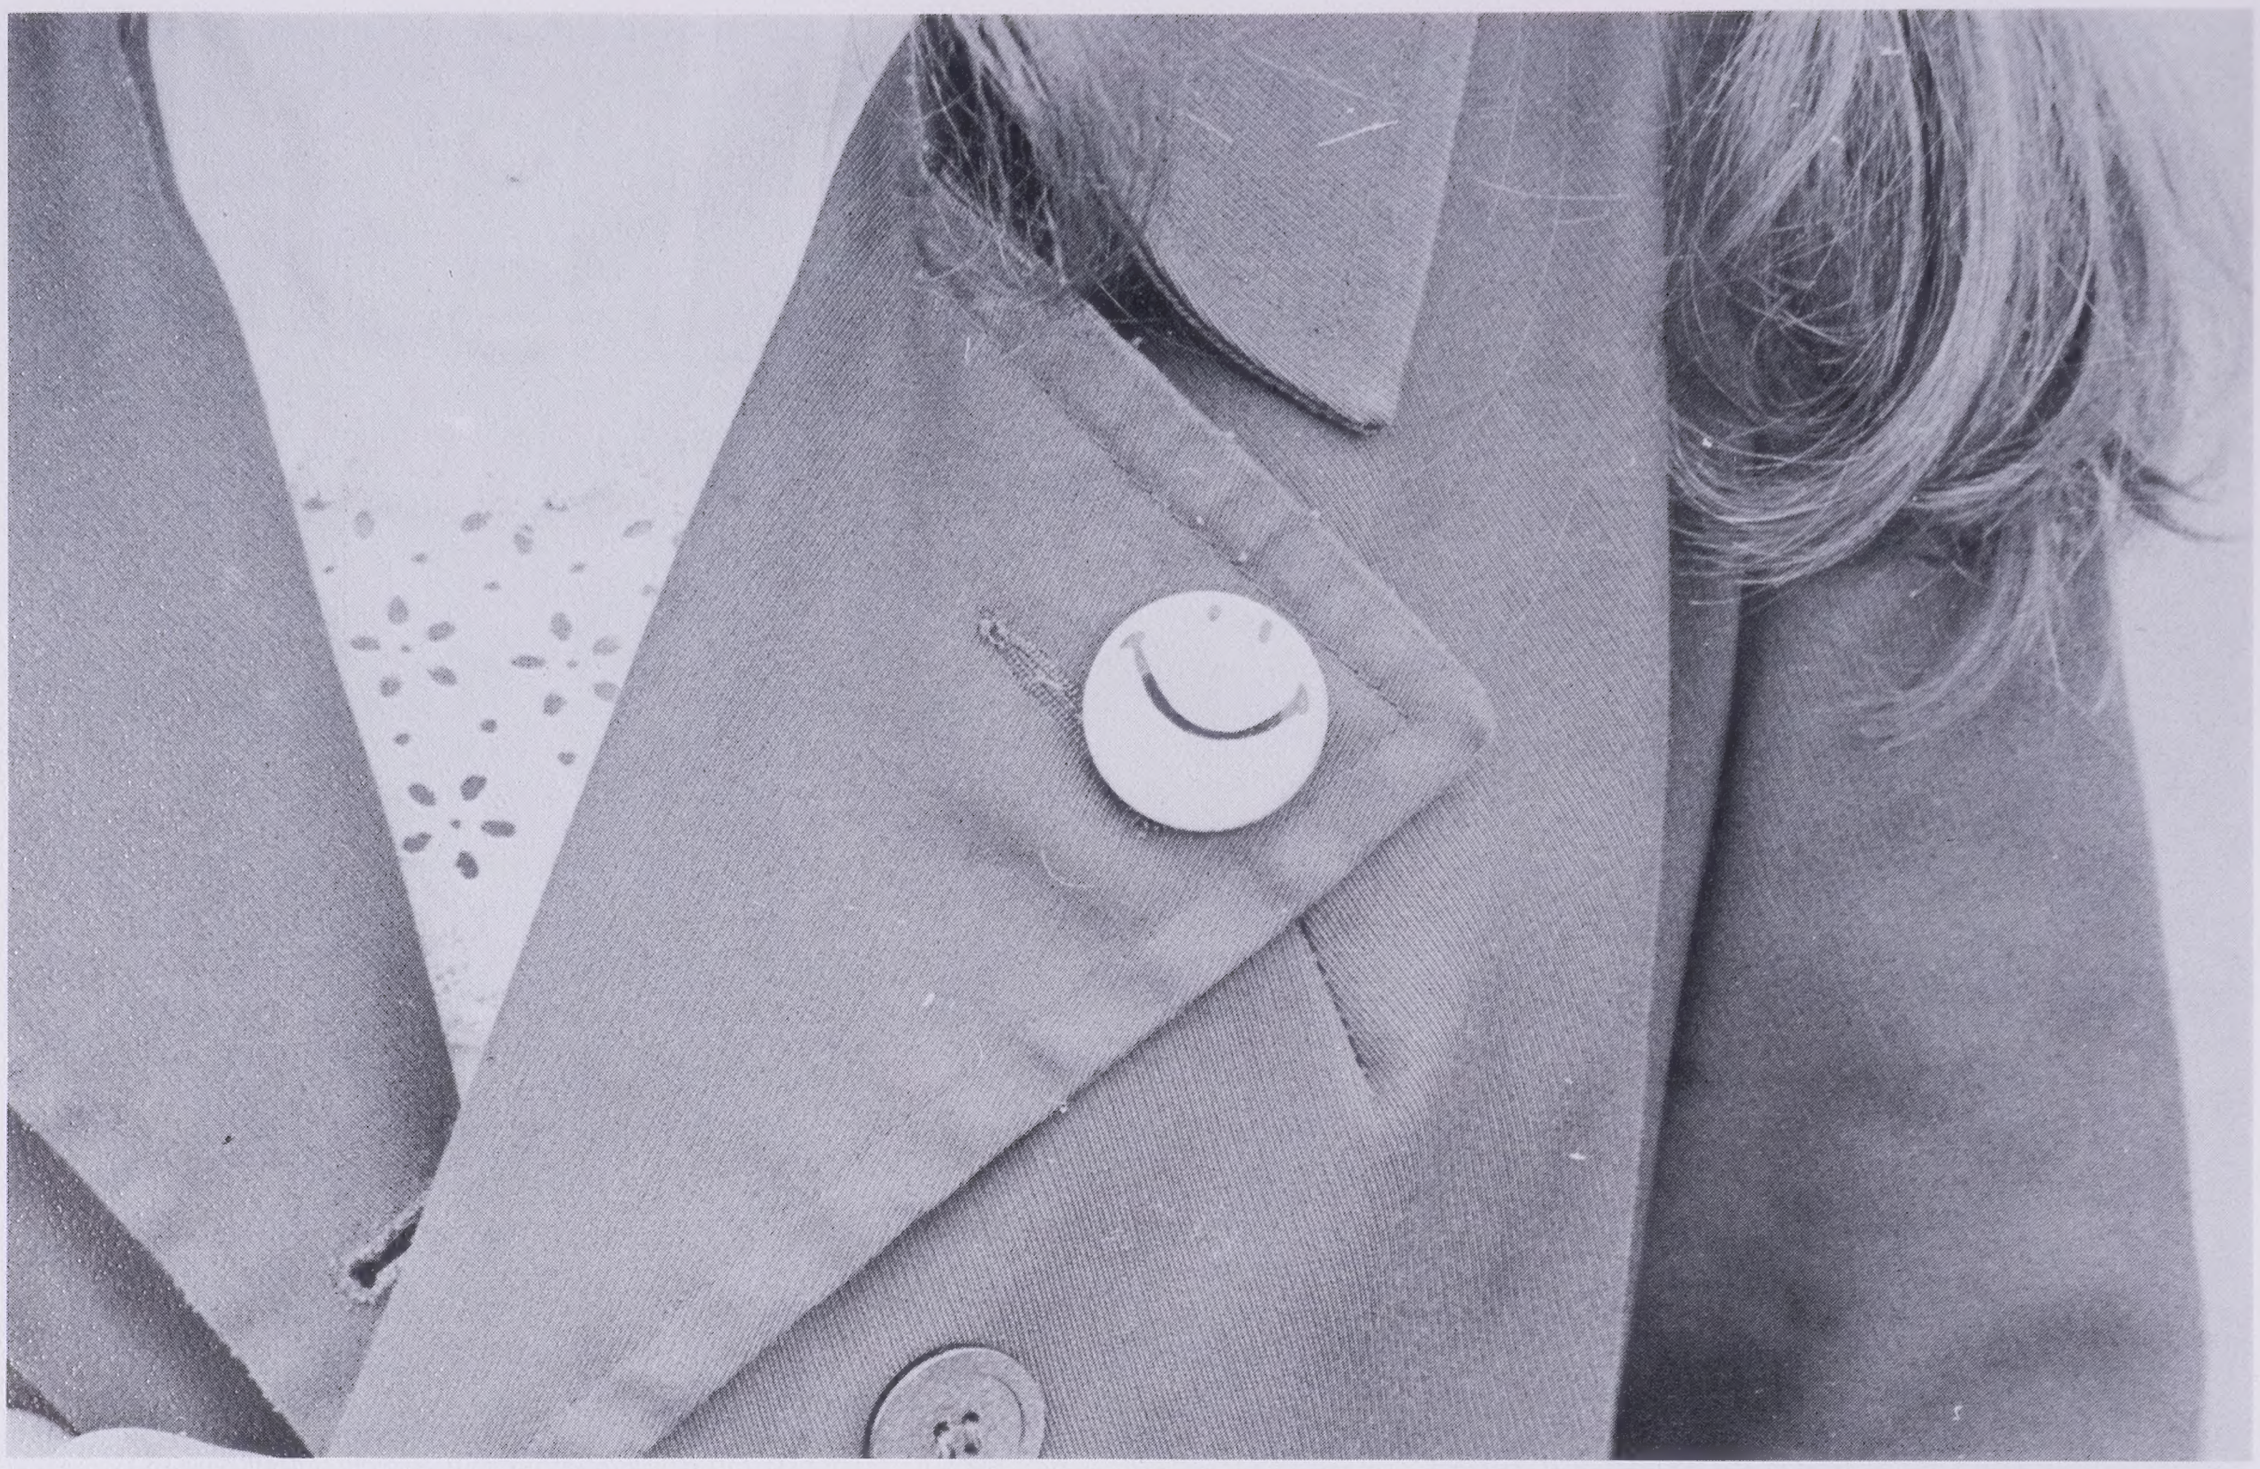

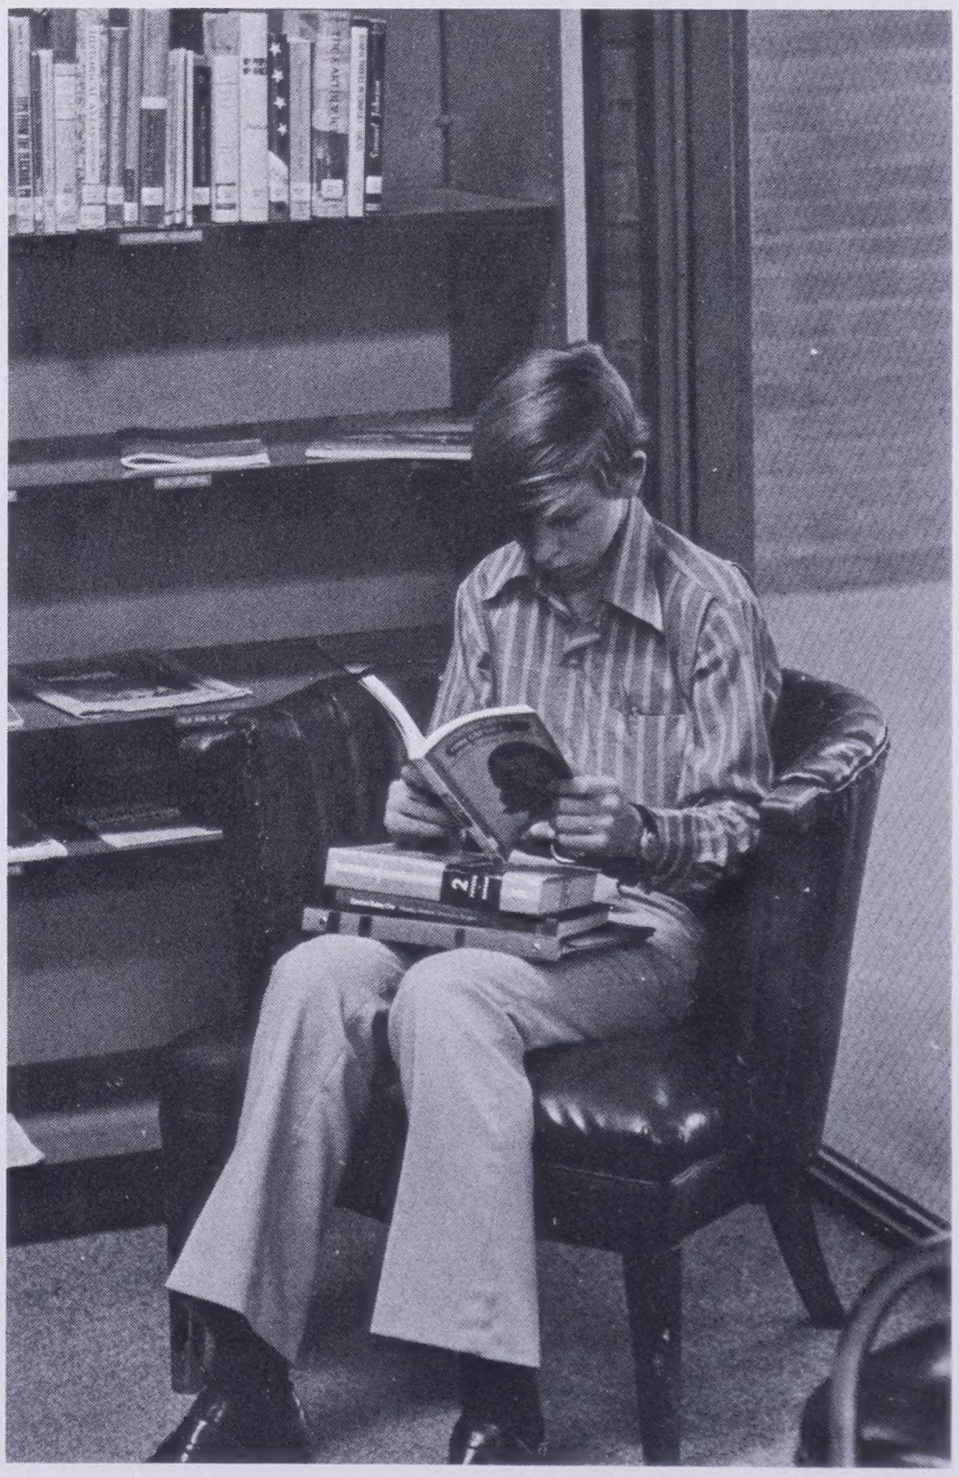

The pattern of life is infinite variety. Day by day the kaleidoscope of our existence focuses on an ever-changing reality.

Important events merge

with the trivial into the whole lump of our being.

As we experience each moment it becomes truly our own. "The sun rises and the sun goes down. . ."

Longhofer Captures Flagball Championship

Despite dark, rainy evenings, approximately fifty loyal fans came to watch each of this years flagball intramural games. Mr. Longhofer's team defeated Mr. Velez's team in the championship game. Many faculty participated on the teams this year; the top two teams included five staff members. The climax of the season came as Bruce LaPorte received both the Most Sportsmanlike and the Most Valuable Player awards.

ACTIVITIES

ac·tiv·i·ty (ak-tiv′ə-tī), n. [pl. ACTIVITIES (-tiz)], 1. the quality or state of being active; action; motion; doing; use of energy. 2. normal power of mind or body; energetic action; liveliness; alertness. 3. an active force. 4. any specific action or pursuit: as, outside activities.

Registration Procedures Streamlined

Simplified forms, streamlined procedures, and registration appointments permitted 450 students to register in eight hours on August 29. The usual long lines were not so much in evidence this year as some students completed registration in one hour. For the first time, student I.D. cards with polaroid pictures were issued. With the aid of a computer, class lists were prepared in time for classes beginning the next morning.

Farver and Latsha Entertain

The first Saturday night program of the year featured "Truth or Consequences" conducted by Mr. Farver and Mr. Latsha. Activities ranged from spinning plates and blowing a ping-pong ball down the aisle to choosing the right girl's hand and blowing bubbles in the freshman bubble gum contest. The evening provided an opportunity for the student body to become acquainted.

A.S.A.A. Fall Festival

The spirit of the Old West was revived at the ASAAA Fall Festival as students dressed in styles reminiscent of that era. The evening's wild western activities ranged from riding the bucking bronco, or putting a "favorite" outlaw in the prison, to browsing and shopping at the General Store. Crowds congregated at the Harris Pine Mill booth to watch the unlucky "villains" being dunked in the water. Melody Jones and "Sheriff" Ken Leiske received the individual costume prizes; Bob Green and Peggy Hoekstra were awarded the prize as best dressed couple.

Casa Loma Presents "Sunrise, Sunset"

Pictures and colored slides projected simultaneously onto three screens provided this year's backdrop for Casa Loma's twenty-third amateur hour. From the introduction of officers to the presentation of the Judges' Award, the program demonstrated the professional style, skill and atmosphere of a studio stage. Mr. James Fisher coordinated the slides to set the background for each performance. The Senior Quartet won the Judges' Award for their rendition of "For All We Know."

"International" Open House

Each hall in the dorm was decorated to represent a different country—Polynesian, American, French, Austrian, and Dutch. Original wall murals, over 50 travel posters, super graphics, and even a Polynesian hut were put together by the girls. Since it was girl-ask-boy, the girls picked up their dates at the boys' dorm, then toured the girls' dorm, dined at the cafeteria, and went to the administration building chapel for the entertainment. The Northwest Tribal Association presented native chants, dances and songs of their culture. The second half of the program featured a Folk Dance group, presenting Swedish, Hungarian, Russian, and German folk dances.

Freshman girls were required to decorate their own name tags this year to wear on Freshman Initiation Day. Much originality and a touch of "Freshman Flair" were displayed in the unique decorations.

Courtesy Court Selected

Jill Austin and Mark Toebe were chosen by student ballot to be crowned queen and king of courtesy week at the annual ASAAA Culture Banquet. The organ music during the meal was played by Mr. Don Dealy. Walla Walla College sponsored the entertainment for the evening—original guitar compositions, instrumental groups, and humorous skits.

Snowfall Enhances Christmas Season

Evidences of the Christmas spirit at Auburn ranged from the Choir's candlelight presentation of Handel's Messiah to informal office, club, and faculty parties. Just before vacation the Sylvan Chorus presented their Christmas concert in the chapel decorated for the holidays. Over $4000 was raised with the enthusiastic support of the 200 students who participated in the ingathering and caroling campaign. Zeta Kappa delayed their Christmas party until January 24, but Santa came to Witzel Hall, bringing personalized gifts for members of Casa Loma.

Mexican Fiesta

Folksinger Linda Allen presented a program of original and contemporary songs at the Casa Loma Banquet on February 27. Authentic Mexican food and Latin American background music complimented the theme of a Mexican Fiesta.

Spiritual Program Encourages Christian Growth

The fall week of spiritual emphasis was presented by Dr. Vitrano from Andrews University. In early autumn two Bible Conferences were held at Sunset Lake, led by Elder Balharrie and Elder Maxwell from Walla Walla College. The House of Agapé was set up across from the campus as a place where students could pray and study. Students organized and presented a week of prayer during January. They also conducted an on-campus Bible Conference in preparation for the spring Week of Prayer, presented by Richard Barron, author of COMES THE WHIRLWIND. These meetings were opened to the public as the Academy's part in Mission '72.

The experience of our life, and of a school year, will always include a time of laughter and a time to mourn. In the empty places, so familiar, we feel our loss most deeply, yet we are reminded of when all sorrow will end.

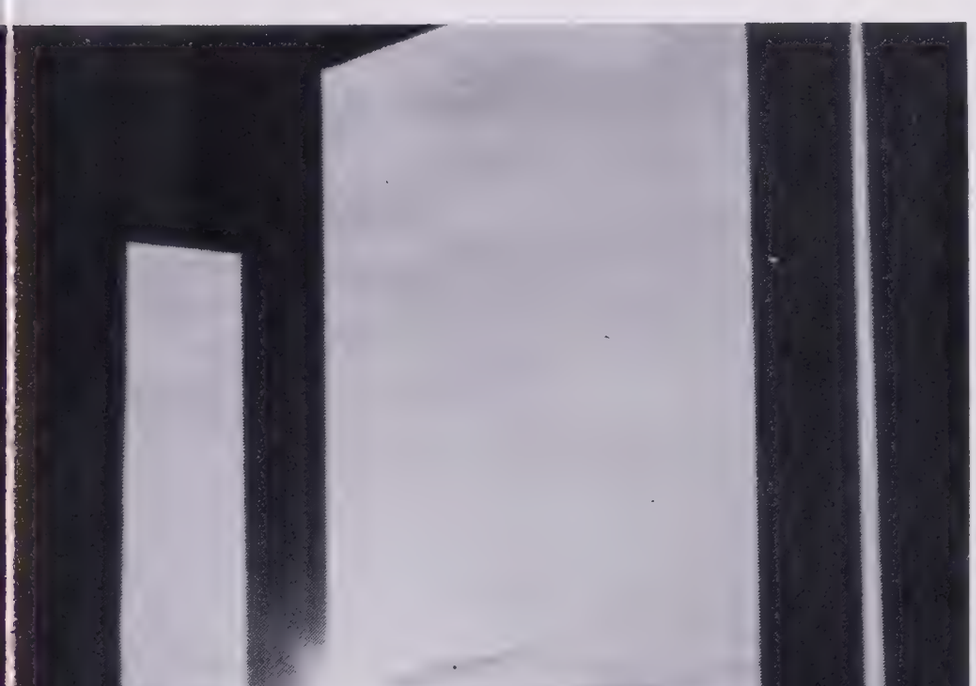

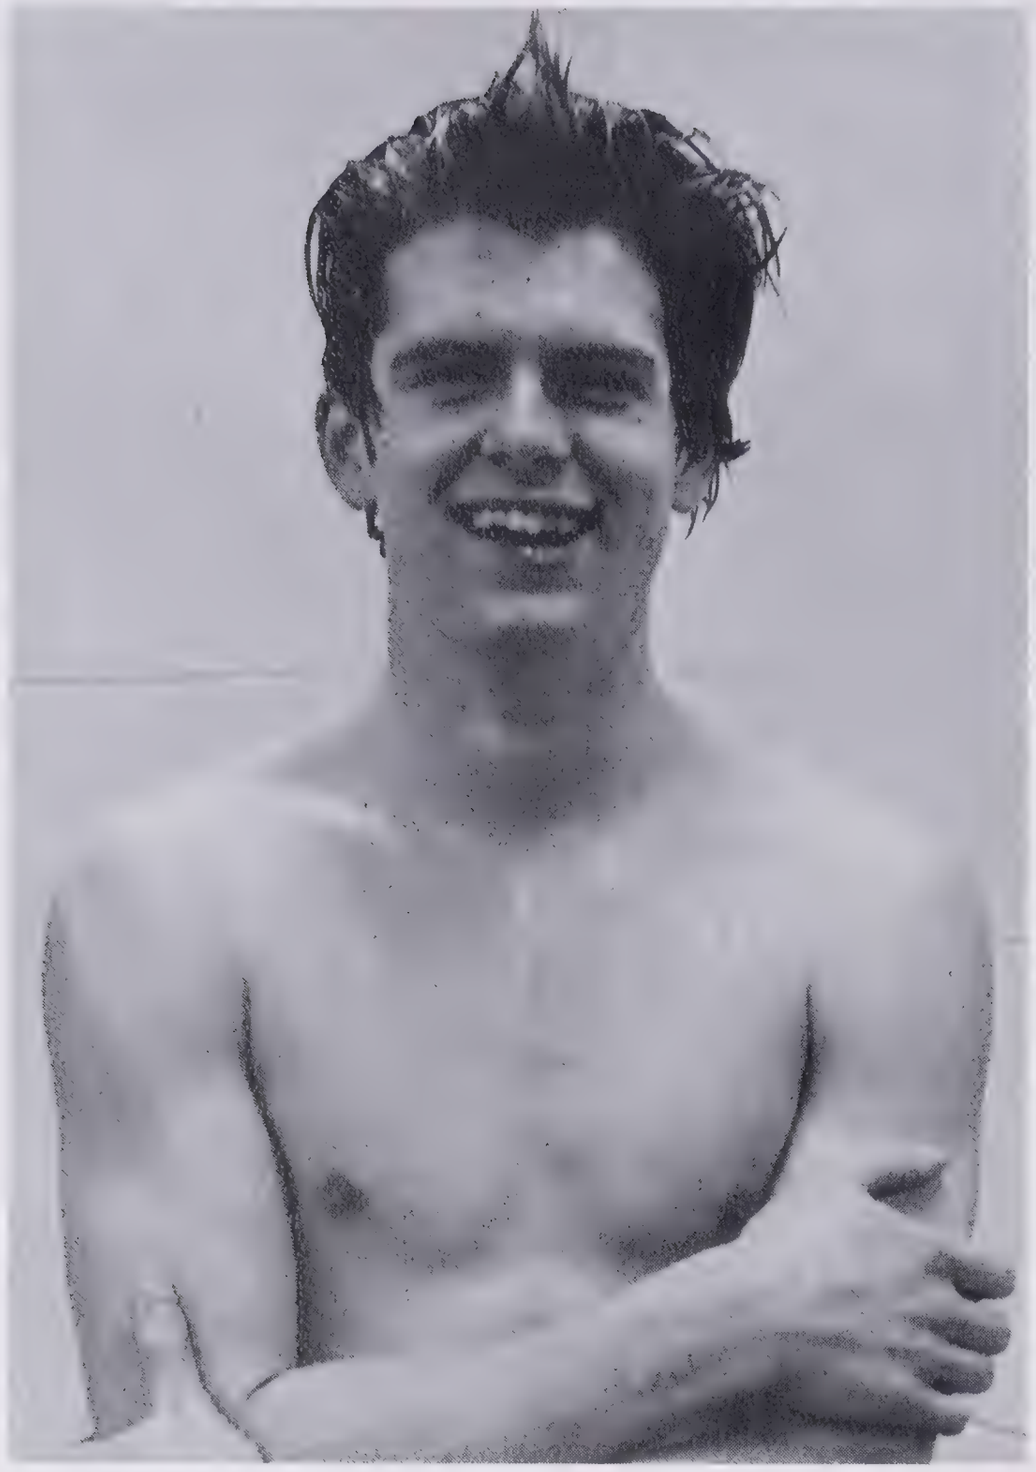

DONALD WAYNE SEALEY — September 25, 1971

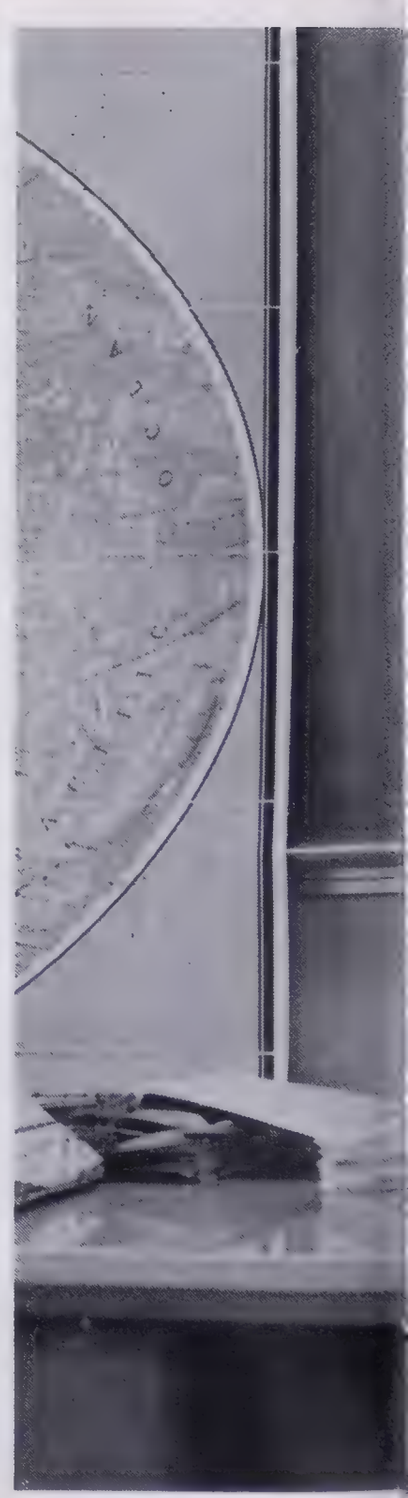

CLIFFORD L. WITZEL — January 16, 1972

RICHARD DEAN CARLSON — February 25, 1972

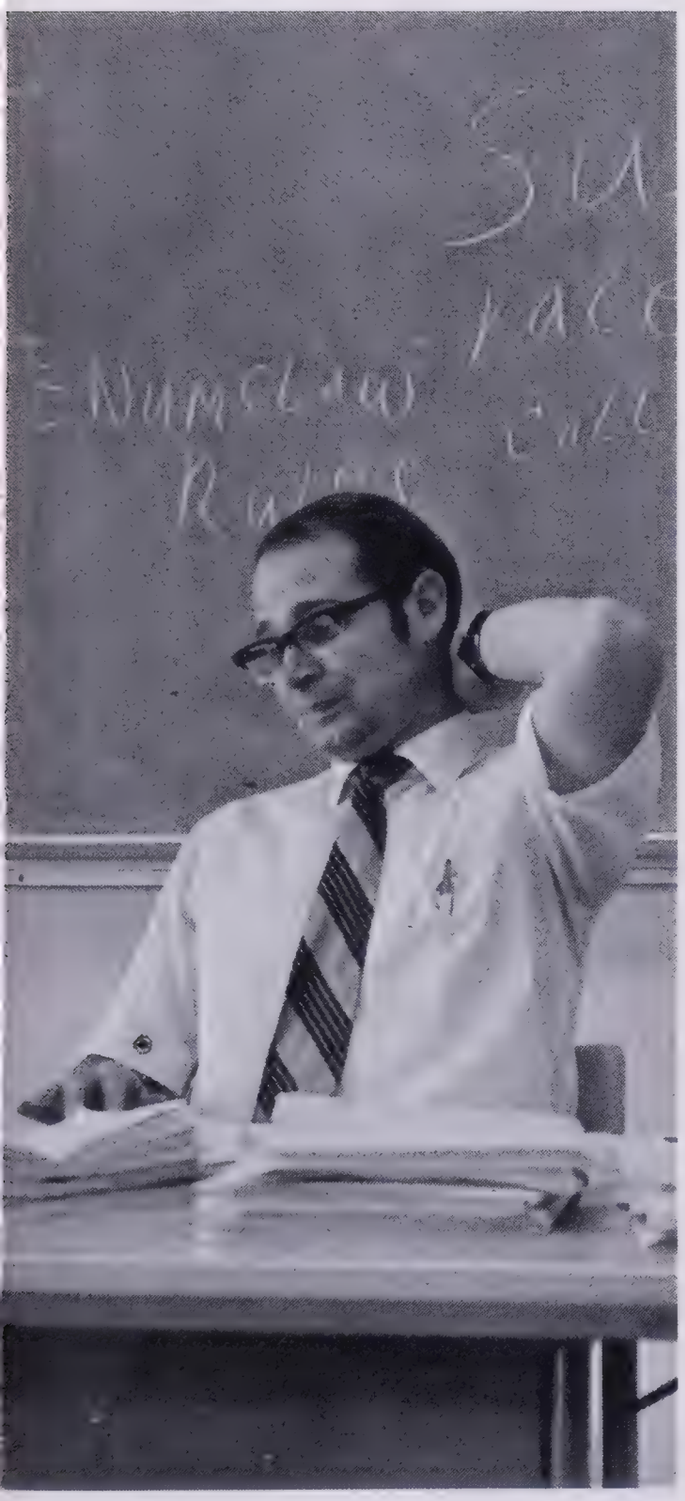

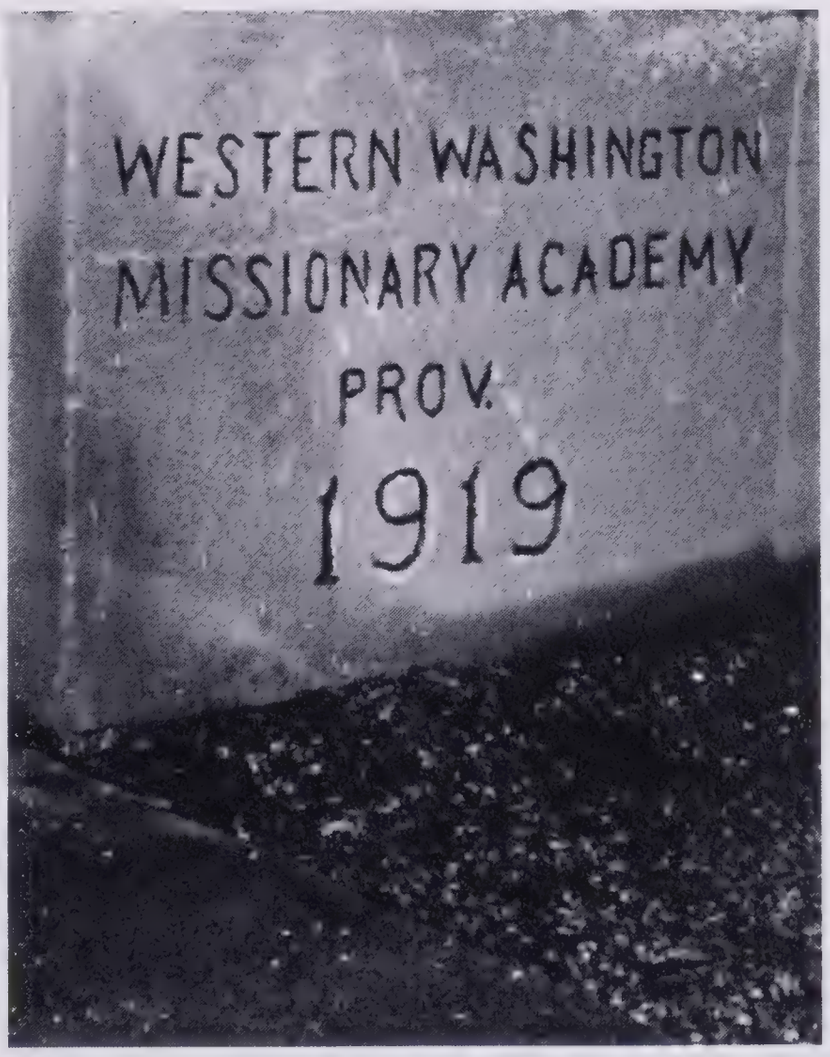

"What has happened will happen again, and what has been done will be done again, and there is nothing new under the sun. Is there anything of which one can say, 'Look, this is new'? No, it has already existed, long ago before our time."
